The Time of Kairos

by the Very Rev. Alston B. Johnson
alston@stmarkscathedral.net

"The object of a New Year is not that we should have a new year. It is that we should have a new soul."

— G. K. Chesterton

One of the most important spiritual teachers that I met through the years was Mary Hall, a professor of English and Ancient literature at the University of Vermont. Dr. Hall had the gift of sharing insights into literature and philosophy as though she were sharing travel stories from a distant country or planet that she regularly visited. She spoke of the work of Plato, the Gospels, Shakespeare, Blake, and countless others as though she were their personal friend and confidant. Her vocation as a teacher and a Christian was inviting her students to share in those discoveries.

"To see a World in a Grain of Sand And a Heaven in a Wild Flower, Hold Infinity in the palm of your hand And Eternity in an hour." — Blake

"Our birth is but a sleep and a forgetting."
— Wordsworth

A lesson that she helped me learn is that chronological time, and the time experienced in the heights and depths of the soul, are sometimes moving at different speeds and with different purpose. Visiting her office, or visiting in her home, when I would complain of being busy, or show the obvious signs of stress and wear that come with too much study, she would caution me about the fetish of overwork for the sake of pride or proving something. Dr. Hall would acknowledge the trophies I was gathering in the classroom, but she would always invite me to look higher, see farther, and fall more deeply into a mysterious "knowing" of God over which calendars and clocks and schedules have little sway.

She introduced me to a word in ancient Greek – Kairos – a word for time that communicates the moment an opening appears within events, offering the critical moment of decision and action. I find that most athletes and musicians and entrepreneurs often have an instinctive sense of the importance of the "moment." It is the moment of action, the moment of decision, the season for meaningful thought and behavior.

In the New Testament, Kairos appears in the first few verses of Mark's Gospel – the time appointed by God for his purposes – The Kingdom of God is at hand. The hands on the clock of Kairos are not steel fingers plucking off notes by the second, the hour, the day, and the year. The hands of the clock that is Kairos, are the heartbeats of the newborn baby, the last breaths of a dying body, the tears of joy in the heart reborn, the swift quickening of dedicated purpose in the life of pursuing goals and victories. The hands of the clock that is Kairos are more often felt than seen; time moving across the human heart and soul like a breeze striking the wind chimes in the backyard, or like the lightning bolts of history upon which time and events move as on a hinge. The time of Kairos has the foretaste of something eternal, something that cannot quite fit into this world; it is the music and light of the next world breaking through the curtain of this world.

For me, Kairos is the “something new” breaking through the Chronology of something old, mortal, tried and tired.

The so called “New Year” brings these thoughts to my mind because my new year began on the calendar date December 2, 2018 – The First Sunday of Advent. Through the words of the poets and the philosophers, I can see that Dr. Hall was teaching me to make a kind of exchange regarding my perceptions of time and the meaning of its passing. In our worship, in our prayers, in our conversations with God, we are exchanging time as a limited commodity of mortal life, for time that is endlessly full of light and hope and whose chief value is that it is limit-less. The promise of Christ is that we will live forever, and we will live with Him.

I have a sense that this will be my resolution at the turning of the Gregorian Calendar – make a move into a deeper awareness of how my life is shaped by Kairos; or in the words of Philip Brooks,

“The only way to get rid of your past is to make a future out of it.”

Blessings and Godspeed, Alston

St. Mark's Plans Second Mission Trip to Kasese, Uganda

Our next trip will be in June 2019. Our plans are to work on assisting the young people at the Diocesan cathedral to build a garden reception area that they are working on and to help with building a Sunday school building in a mountain village outside the city. If you are interested in joining us, please let William Weaver or Fr. Thomas know. Our next planning meeting will be January 9 at 5:00 pm in the Parlor. Come help us spread the love and gather Uganda love all in Jesus name.

Greetings!

Hope you all enjoyed your Christmas break. The upcoming trip to Mo-Ranch is only a couple months away. Please let Fr. Drew know if this is something you plan to attend. We had a great trip last year there, swimming and fishing on the Guadalupe, doing the ropes challenge course, and worshiping at the beautiful outdoor chapel on the hill. Also, there is still time for high schoolers to sign up for Happening and CLEY at Camp Hardtner. If you are interested in attending either camp, please visit epiwl.org/ministries/youth

Also, I want to draw your attention to the Wednesday evening High School Bible study we have been doing since Fall. This is a great way for high schoolers of different schools to come, bring a friend, and talk about a different passage of Scripture each week. It is a good way to stay grounded in the middle of the week, and to take some time away from the constant duties many of us have and think about the real purposes of life. There is dinner before each Bible study in the Parish Hall, and the Bible study group meets in the Ministry Center after. We hope to see you there!

God's Blessings, Drew

The Way of Love

By Thomas Nsubuga

The Old Hymn says it best: "Breathe on me, Breath of God, Fill me with life anew, That I may love what Thou dost love, And do what Thou wouldst do."

That is our prayer for 2019 in the Growing in Grace Sunday School. We want the breath of God to fill us anew as we explore "The Way of Love," that is Turn, Learn, Pray, Worship, Bless, Go and Rest.

In this rule of life, pioneered by the Presiding Bishop, Michael Curry, we want first of all to turn. We want to figure out how every day we could turn our life like a flower turns toward the sun and turn our lives in the direction of God's love and in the direction of Jesus Christ.

Secondly, we will learn. We want to see what we can learn from the word of God through the reading of Holy Scripture and spiritual material that help to train up the spirit, learn to wrestle with scripture, paying particular attention to those passages in preaching where we actually hear the voice of Jesus.

Thirdly, we will pray. We will explore how to spend some real time every day in prayer. It does not have to be a long time, but rather, some real time in real prayer. We will look at practices of prayer and different ways of prayer which can help us on that journey.

Fourthly, we will worship. We will see the importance of gathering with the Christian community at least once a week, preferably for the Holy Eucharist, to worship our God, to open our lives to God and be blessed by God and by each other.

Fifthly, we will bless. It is a fact that we have been blessed so that we might be a blessing to others. The question is how do we bless? We will learn how we can make a decision each day to live a life that, as John Maxwell says "adds value" to someone so that at every turning in the day, in a moment of decision making, we are asking, "How can I be a blessing in this day, in this way, in this moment?"

Sixthly, we will go. We will talk about our exit strategy into the world to touch somebody's life, to love the way Jesus loved, to give the way Jesus gave, to forgive the way Jesus forgave and to do justice, to love mercy and to walk humbly with God (Micah 6:8) just like Jesus.

After turning, learning, praying, worshipping, blessing, and going, we will rest. This is the hardest part for many of us. It is not an accident that the seventh day of creation, in the Book of Genesis, is when God saw all that He had made was good and then rested. The soul must rest, the spirit must rest and the body must rest. If God rested, we too must rest.

Come and join us on the journey of love. Turn, learn, pray, worship, bless, go and rest are words or practices that can train up a spirit to follow the way of Jesus. "By entering into reflection, discernment and commitment around the practices of Turn - Learn - Pray - Worship - Bless - Go - Rest...we will grow as a community, following the loving, liberating, life-giving way of Jesus. His way has the power to change each of our lives and to change this world" (The Most Reverend Michael B. Curry).

Cathedral School News

By Dr. Chris Carter

ccarter@stmarksschool.com

January marks the start of a new calendar year and the mid-point of the academic year. It also marks the time when school administrators spend as much time planning for next year as managing the current year. In particular we turn to issues of enrollment and staffing.

Re-enrollment for current families begins January 7, and open enrollment for new families will begin in February. Remember to call the admissions office if you want to schedule a tour and consider enrolling a child next year. Our preschool 2 and 3 openings will be very limited, so don't wait!

Last month, two very long-serving parishioner faculty members announced their retirement as of the end of this academic year. Karol Fontaine, our wonderful P.E. teacher, and Olivia Bradley, our fabulous French Teacher and Middle School Director will step down, and they leave big shoes to fill! The process of filling both openings has begun, with the intent of announcing Karol's and Olivia's successors sooner rather than later. I have appointed an advisory search committee to assist in selecting a new Middle School Director. Current School board members Rodney Varnadore and Alex Rowe, and former School Board Chair Kevin Pavlick have all graciously agreed to serve on that committee. Rodney and Kevin are both parishioners as well. I hope everyone in the parish knows the great ministries of Karol and Olivia and will join me in wishing them well as they step into new chapters of life. The school will celebrate their tenures appropriately nearer to the end of the year, but for now we enjoy this final semester with these two wonderful educators!

St. Mark's History

by Rev. Drew Christiansen

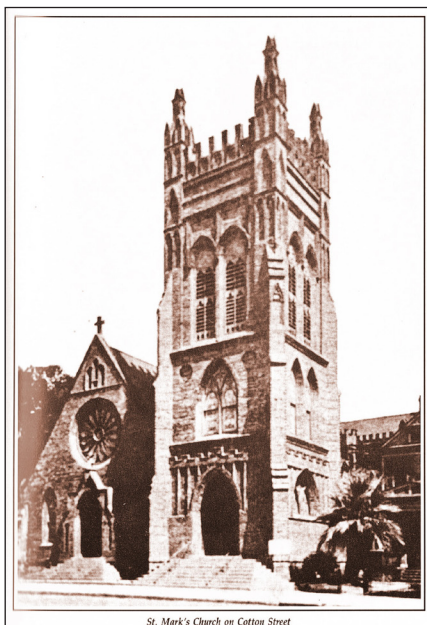

January 1907 – Nearly nine years before Rev. Dr. James Owen's installation at St. Mark's in Shreveport, accolades were sung of him from the vestry of St. Paul's parish in Norfolk, VA. Upon Owens' ministry moving on from St. Paul's to another parish at that time, the vestry praised his time with them as "marked by a high endeavor, earnest zeal, and splendid achievement." They thanked Owens for his "sympathetic ministrations in times of affliction, his unflinching efforts for the promotion of true righteousness, and for the upbuilding of our church and community according to the highest Christian standards." *

January, 1956 – According to the annual report of the Church Library Committee, 2,479 books were circulated during the year of 1955 prompting the installation of new and permanent bookshelves. A member of the committee was responsible for staffing the church library on Sunday and weekday mornings!

January, 1972 – the first annual "Polaroid Scavenger Hunt" was held on January 9th followed by an awarding of prizes and dinner in the Parish Hall. If anyone presently at St. Mark's either witnessed this event or partook in it, and they remember what exactly this scavenger hunt entailed. Many here at St. Mark's are likely curious to learn more about it.

January, 1977 – St. Mark's Cathedral and St. Mark's Cathedral School acquired the old Barrett property, expanding their campus space and used to this day.

We thank the staff of Noel Memorial Library for generously sharing the LSUS Northwest Louisiana Archives for this information, and for their continuing work in preserving St. Mark's history.*

Come Sample Our Pilgrim Course

Since September 5, St. Mark's Cathedral has been running the Pilgrim Course. The Pilgrim course is structured in four booklets in the Follow stage and four booklets in the Grow stage. The idea of the Follow and the Grow stage is that each of the Follow stage has a Grow stage; for example turning to Christ in the Follow stage has the Creeds in the Grow stage; the Lord's Prayer has the Eucharist, the Commandments have the Bible, the Beatitudes have the Church and the Kingdom. In other words you have four questions that are answered at two levels. Question one: What do Christians believe? In the Follow stage by turning to Christ and in the Grow stage by the Creeds. Question two: How do Christians know and worship God? In the Follow stage is by the Lord's Prayer and in the Grow stage by the Eucharist. Question three: How do Christians behave? In the Follow stage through the Commandments and in the Grow stage through the Bible. And the final question: What is the Christian's vision for the world? In the Follow stage is the beatitudes and in the Grow stage it is the Church and the Kingdom.

This course is designed for people who are interested in discipleship. In church we think especially of new Christians who need to learn the way of discipleship. The fact is that we are all disciples and therefore the pilgrim course is for everybody on the Christian journey because it asks the basic fundamental questions about who we are as followers of Christ and what enables us to be good followers of Jesus Christ. Because disciples are people who learn, we are all called to learn throughout our Christian journey; throughout our Christian life. Yes, the Pilgrim Course is for new Christians who want, in particular, to explore the life in Christ as they begin to work out what it means to be a disciple but also the Course works really well for people who are already established Christians. It is for this reason that we are recommending the Course for the confirmation class this year. If you would like to be confirmed in 2019, make sure that you join the ongoing Pilgrim Course. If you have missed the first sessions visit with the dean abjohnson@stmarkscathedral.net or subdean Thomas@stmarkscathedral.net and we will work with you to make up for the missed sessions.
